Hot Lotto Winner Remains Calm about $10,000 Win

Washington, D.C. – “I was calm because I’m an old man now, and I didn’t want to have a heart attack,” said longtime Hot Lotto® player Robert Gray. “I was born in 1926,” continued the Rockville, Maryland resident who correctly matched five numbers to win $10,000 for the July 15, 2009 drawing for which the winning numbers were: 7-15-21-32-37 +14.

With subdued excitement, Gray stated that he has been playing Hot Lotto since the D.C. Lottery offered it to players in 2004 and plans to pay a few bills with his prize money. Gray uses the advanced play option and usually plays the same numbers. He said he will also continue to spend his time with his family. A father of eight, Gray has grandchildren and great grandchildren who he visits regularly. “There is always someplace to go,” Gray noted, including to a D.C. Lottery retailer to buy more lottery tickets.

Gray purchased his winning ticket at Cork ‘N Bottle, 7421 Georgia Avenue, N.W.
